Edward King, III Wins Award in IndieFEST Film Awards

(La Jolla, CA - Nov. 2014) – Edward King III, of Silver Shadow Pictures, has won a prestigious Award of Merit from the IndieFEST Film Awards. The award was given for Edward King III's exciting comedy, RIDDLE ME THIS, about two guys in debt to the mob. Riddle Me This features exceptional talent Don Harvey surrounded by fresh talented newcomers in a charming, funny story of why you don't take money from the mob.

"Riddle Me This was an fantastic opportunity to tell a big story on a small scale with folks I love and respect. Receiving any award, let alone an IndieFest Film Award for this project was more than we could have hoped for. We are excited and proud of this little film and we hope that it made you laugh." Edward King III, Director.

The IndieFEST Film Awards recognizes film, television, videography and new media professionals who demonstrate exceptional achievement in craft and creativity, and those who produce standout entertainment or contribute to profound social change. Entries are judged by highly qualified professionals in the film and television industry. Information about the IndieFEST and a list of recent winners can be found at www.theindiefest.com.

In winning an IndieFEST Film Award, Edward King, III joins the ranks of other high-profile winners of this internationally respected award including Liam Neeson as the narrator of Love Thy Nature, Julia Louis-Dreyfus and Tom Hall for Generosity of Eye and European heavyweight Roland Joffe for The Lovers starring Josh Hartnett. Rick Prickett, who chairs The IndieFEST Film Awards, had this to say about the latest winners, “The IndieFEST is not an easy award to win. Entries are received from around the world from powerhouse companies to remarkable new talent. The IndieFEST helps set the standard for craft and creativity. The judges were pleased with the exceptional high quality of entries. The goal of The IndieFEST Film Awards is to help winners achieve the recognition they deserve.”
